

Lendor

ECO merino T-shirt, long sleeves, short zip, ARC protection (APC1)

300MA2MFJ

The Lendor long-sleeved T-shirt is an inherently flame-retardant base layer offering certified anti-static and ARC (APC1) protection with a refined, body-hugging fit. Made from Lenzing™ FR, Merino wool, polyamide and AST fibres, it features a turtleneck with short zip and a subtle woven pattern that enhances its professional look. A premium protective garment that combines comfort, style and protection in every move.
